

KENYAN CRIMINAL LAW

By Juliet O. Amenge and Evelyne O. Asaala

Open
Access

Kenyan Criminal Law is a pioneering textbook that presents the general principles and specific offences of Kenyan criminal law based on a systematic approach and consistent methodology. Chapters on the sources and history as well as the international dimension of criminal law in Kenya are included. Current case law is extensively incorporated and explained. Definitions, examples, and discussion questions make the book an essential reading for both students and scholars of criminal law, as well as practitioners and judges working in the field.

African Criminal Law Series publishes peer-reviewed monographs open access and aims to create a hub for criminal law in Africa. It emerged in the context of the African German Research Network for Transnational Criminal Justice which is based at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin (Germany).

Dr. Juliet O. Amenge is an independent Legal Researcher for the African-German Research Network. Her research centers on international, transnational and Kenyan criminal law. Previously, she has held positions as a Prosecutor in the Directorate of Public Prosecution in Kenya, Legal Researcher for the Court of Appeal in Kenya, Visiting Professional at the University of Basel (Switzerland) and Lecturer at the University of Nairobi (Kenya). She is a graduate of the Moi University (Kenya) and the University of the Western Cape (South Africa) and holds a PhD from the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin (Germany).

Dr. Evelyne O. Asaala is a Senior Lecturer of law at the University of Nairobi (Kenya). Her research interests include criminal law, international criminal law and transitional justice. She has worked as a researcher for the Kenyan Truth, Justice and Reconciliation Commission and Lecturer at the Africa Nazarene University (Kenya) She is a graduate of the Universities of Nairobi (Kenya) and Pretoria (South Africa) and holds a PhD from the University of Witwatersrand (South Africa).

HUMBOLDT-
UNIVERSITÄT
ZU BERLIN

Read online at <https://edoc.hu-berlin.de/handle/18452/29949>